

The Pagan Origin Of Easter

A Death Trap

Let my lips be as a thread of scarlet and my speech comely, connecting each word to the testimony of JESUS CHRIST, which is the spirit of prophesy. It is by the Holy Spirit and JESUS, Himself, the only begotten Son of God, Who is come in the flesh, to unite us with The Heavenly Father, giving us eternal life through His shed blood and death on the cross that I release these words to you.

Easter is the day that is honored by nearly all of modern day Christianity and is used as a to celebrate the resurrection of Jesus Christ. This date and style of worship was forced on our forefathers by law imposed through the Roman Catholic Church. This holiday most often involves a church service at sunrise, a feast which includes an "Easter Ham", decorated eggs and stories about rabbits. Why are these actions acceptable, embarrassed and caused within all churches.

Lovers of the truth have learn to ask questions, and many questions must be asked regarding the holiday called Easter. Is it truly the day when Jesus arose from the dead, NO it is not. Where did all of the strange customs come from, which have nothing to do with the resurrection of our Savior? Our children are rightfully taught that lying is a sin but that situation lying is acceptable, this also is a sin.

The first thing we must understand is that professing Christians of yesterday were not the only ones who celebrated a Spring festival called "Easter." "Ishtar", which is pronounced "Easter". This was a day that commemorated the resurrection of one of their spirit gods that they loved, obeyed and payed a tribute of 10% of their wealth in money to there priest called "Tammuz". The people were taught that He was the only begotten son of the sun-god, the one who ruled by day with all power . The satanic kingdom gave him and his mother great power to persuade and many lying wonders and dark spirit manifestations before the world of fallen men to there joy.

In those ancient times, there was a man named Nimrod, who was the grandson of one of Noah's sons named Ham. He had a son named Cush who married a woman named Semiramis (This Sumerian is a child birthed from a followed one from the skies). Cush and Semiramis then had a son named him "Nimrod." A most unholy man. After the death of his father Nimrod married his own mother and therefor becoming a very powerful King.

History tells of this man, Nimrod, in Genesis 10:8-10 as follows: "And Cush begat Nimrod: he began to be a mighty one in the earth. He was a mighty hunter before the Lord: wherefore it is said, even as Nimrod the mighty hunter before the Lord is one who had trapping skill and tremendous power in deception also a hunter of men to overthrow there political power and spirit positions in His kingdom. The beginning of his kingdom was Babel, this is were he was ruling in the land of Shinar."

Nimrod transposed himself to become a god-man to the people of Shinar and the Semiramis, his wife, became the most powerful Queen of ancient Babylon. Their power came form the worship of Satan. He, Nimrod opened the veil of his heart to allow Satan to posses himself for the lust of all thees things I will give to you and you can become like the Most High a god ruler of all the earth. This is the old but workable lie of the expelled one from heaven.

Nimrod was put to death by an enemy, and his body was cut in pieces and sent to various parts of his kingdom. This was done to hinder the replacement of his body parts in one place therefore through the occult teaching he would be unable to return to life again on the earth as a man. After learning this Semiramis had all of the parts gathered, except for one part that could not be found this was Satan's intervention to further his divine worship plan.

The missing part was his reproductive organ. Semiramis claimed that Nimrod could not come back to life on the earth without it and told the people of Babylon that Nimrod had ascended to the sun and was now to be called "Baal", the sun god.

Queen Semiramis also proclaimed that Baal would be present on earth in the form of a flame, whether candle or lamp, when used in worship of the spirit of Baal or to say Nimrod the sun god. Semiramis was creating a mystery religion, and with the help of Satan, she (Nimrod mother and wife) set herself up as a living goddess forever. Semiramis claimed that she was immaculately conceived.

She taught that the moon was a goddess that went through a 28 day cycle and ovulated when full. This was to have happened at each time of the first full moon after the spring equinox and her moon egg became known as "Ishtar's" egg. She further claimed that in the beginning she came down from the sky in a giant moon egg that landed into the Euphrates River."

Semiramis became known as "Ishtar" which is pronounced "Easter",

Ishtar soon became pregnant and claimed that it was the rays of the sun-god Baal that caused her to conceive through a virgins birth.. The golden god given son that she brought forth was named Tammuz. His favorite food was rabbits, and they became sacred in the ancient religion, because Tammuz was believed to be the son of the sun-god, Baal. Tammuz, like his supposed father, became a hunter. One day while hunting Tammuz was killed in a wooded field by a wild pig.

Queen Ishtar told the people that Tammuz's spirit was now ascended to his father and sets with his father Baal and that the two of them must now be worshiped with sacred candles or lamp flame as both Father, Son and Spirit.

Ishtar, was now worshiped as the "Mother of God and Queen of Heaven". Through satanic power Ishtar continued to build her/his mystery religion. The queen told the worshipers that when Tammuz was killed by the wild pig, his blood fell on the stump of an evergreen tree, and the stump grew into a full new tree overnight. This made the evergreen tree sacred by the blood of Tammuz. She thought that her son has divine power of life on this earth. She required all eggs brought to the temples to worship on Easter to be colored red and rabbits killed and eaten that day at noon.

By her power over all nations she proclaimed a forty day period of time of sorrow each year prior to the anniversary of the death of Tammuz. During this time, no meat was to be eaten.

Her worshipers were to meditate upon the sacred mysteries and incantations for Baal and Tammuz to spiritually appear in their services and were required make the sign of the "X" in front of their hearts forever as they worshiped to bring there divine favor for themselves They also ate sacred cakes with the marking of a "X" or cross on the top.

Every year, on the first Sunday after the first full moon after the spring equinox, a celebration was made. Easter is a day of darkness thought through and to our forefathers and is a day of money to all merchants who rejoice in this cursed holiday Ishtar's Sunday.

Ishtar also proclaimed that because Tammuz was killed by a pig, that a pig must be eaten on that Sunday. A pig not a lamb for Easter by a divine decree while proclaiming herself the "Mother of God and Queen of Heaven". This truly is not Mary our Lord's mother as sold through religion .

Paganism in past times under threat of death infiltrated the contemporary "Christian" churches, this paganism came in by way of the Roman Catholic System and is branded all over America..

The truth is that Easter has nothing whatsoever to do with the resurrection of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Easter can be as much as three weeks away from the Passover, because the pagan holiday is always set as the first Sunday after the first full moon after the spring equinox. Why is the word "Easter" in the the King James Bible. It is because it is written in Acts, chapter 12, were the evil King Herod, was planning to celebrate Easter, and not the Christians. The true Passover and pagan Easter sometimes coincide on the same day, but in some years, they are a great distance apart.

"God is a Spirit: and they that worship him must worship him in spirit and in truth."

The truth is that the forty days of fasting called Lent, red eggs, rabbits, hot cross buns served, mandated sunrise services and the Easter ham have everything to do with the ancient pagan religion of Mystery Babylon and the mother whore. This is not of Christ.

These are all Antichrist activities!

Satan is a master deceiver, and has filled the lives of well-meaning, professing Christians with idolatry. These things bring the wrath of God upon children of disobedience, who try to make pagan customs of Baal worship for Christian. Everyone must answer for your activities and for what you teach your children. These customs of Easter honor Baal, who is also the spirit Satan, and is still worshiped as the "Rising Sun" and his house is the "House of the Rising Sun, the Roman Catalina Church known a " Mystery Babylon and the Harlot who rides upon her".

Fallen churches have "sunrise services" on Ishtar's day and face the rising sun in the East?

How many will use colored eggs and rabbits stories, as they did in ancient Babylon.

These things are no joke, any more than Judgment day is a joke.

These are the last days, and it is time to repent, come out from those who allow the unholy to be mingled with the Holy and by command of Jesus be separate.

"God is a Spirit: and they that worship him must worship him in spirit and in truth."

This work is to honor the truth of Jesus Christ
